

FREMONT YOUNG MAN MARRIES SOUTH DAKOTA GIRL SATURDAY IN LUTHERAN CHURCH, CHICAGO

On Saturday evening, May 4, Park Lutheran church in Chicago, was the scene of a beautiful candlelight ceremony when Miss Evelyn M. Nielsen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Nielsen, of Colome, S. D., became the bride of Frederick G. Rosentreter, only child of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Rosentreter, of Fremont.

Mr. F. Newman, soloist, sang "O Promise Me" and "Ave Maria," the organ then pealing forth the strains of the Lohengren's Wedding March.

Miss Margene Haus, of Decatur, Ill., attired in a light blue floor-length faille dress, carrying a bouquet of pink carnations and snapdragons, as bridesmaid, preceded down the central aisle, followed by the bride on the arm of her father. She met the bridegroom and his attendant, Norton N. Nielsen, of Evanston, Ill., only brother of the bride, before the chancel.

The soloist sang "I Love You Truly" and the marriage rites were performed in a double ring ceremony by the Rev. Charles Leslie Venable in the presence of the parents of both contracting parties, and about 30 other relatives and friends.

The bride wore a basque waisted floor-length white taffeta dress, with finger-tip veil and carried a bridal bouquet of white gardenias and snapdragons. Her only ornament was a string of pearls, the wedding gift of the groom.

A reception followed in the church parlor, where a three-tiered blue and white wedding cake was the central attraction. The young couple received many beautiful gifts.

They are honeymooning in Fremont and Port Clinton.
