

Rosentreter's Mark Golden Anniversary

Children, grandchildren, and is in demand as a baby-sitter for great-grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rosentreter were seated around the dining table at the Otto Rosentreter home on Sunday to share a golden anniversary celebration with the couple married Sept. 21, 1899, in Augsburg, Germany.

When the senior Rosentreter's moved to this country 36 years later, they brought with them the Bavarian traditions of hospitality and good housekeeping evident in their home at 323 S. Valley View Ave.

Among many pieces of shining silver is an ornate trophy won by Bill Rosentreter of Whittier, Rosentreter in his younger years as a racing bicyclist, but now his exercise is in the garden where cactus and tropical plants flourish in orderly beds without weed in sight.

Mrs. Rosentreter, who was Barbara Strehle before her marriage, is in demand as a baby-sitter for great-grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rosentreter were seated around the dining table at the Otto Rosentreter home on Sunday to share a golden anniversary celebration with the couple married Sept. 21, 1899, in Augsburg, Germany.

Most of the family lives in this area even though Mr. and Mrs. Rosentreter settled in Chicago in 1923 and moved to Whittier in 1948. The anniversary dinner was planned by Mrs. Otto Rosentreter, a daughter-in-law: Mrs. James Bauman, the couple's only daughter; and Mrs. Ingrid Casey, a granddaughter. Paul Rosentreter, Jr. and his wife came from Wisconsin to attend the affair.

The grandchildren are Mrs. Barbara Roberts who was married in June and is living in the East, and Bill Rosentreter of Whittier, Rosentreter in his younger years as a racing bicyclist, but now his exercise is in the garden where cactus and tropical plants flourish in orderly beds without weed in sight.

The great-grandchildren are Chris and Gregory Casey and Robin Lee Rosentreter.
